The office of the Columbia Phoenix is on Gates street, second door from Plain.

We are sorry to hear that David J. ...

MADAME SOSNOWSKI.—We regret that the editor of the Augusta Constitutionalist has suffered the report to appear in his paper that Madame Sosnowski, of this place, has gone off with the Yankees. She never for a moment left that home here in which she has been so long distinguished for good works in the Confederate cause. We beg to call the attention of the Constitutionalist, and all other papers, to this correction, and to the propriety of giving it general circulation.

GOV. MAGRATH.—We are pleased to welcome his Excellency Governor Magrath once more to our city. He brings with him the most encouraging auspices. He has organized an adequate partisan force for the covering and protection of the country below us. He has also established guards on all the mountain avenues in the country above us. We trust, and take for granted, from the copious reports before us, that we shall be fully able to keep the chapter of war chances fully in our own hands for the next nine months.

WINNSBORO.—The Fairfield Courier reports the ravages of the enemy in Winnsboro, which bear a family likeness to our own. Twenty dwellings were destroyed—certainly a large proportion for so small a place. The citizens were robbed of everything. The route of the Yankees to and from Winnsboro and to Blackstocks, was marked by the like destruction of houses, barns, plantations, stock, cattle, hogs, &c. Horses and mules were carried off everywhere.

We learn that the trains on the Macon and Western Railroad are running through to Atlanta, and that the trains on the Georgia Railroad are expected to be running through from Augusta to Atlanta by the middle of April.

Overcoat Lost.

LOST on the road between Columbia and Winnsboro a BLACK OVERCOAT. In the pocket were a pair of gloves and four handkerchiefs, one of which is "R. S. Green." A suitable reward will be given, if left at this office.
